Bupa Arabia Communication

Bupa Arabia announces the official signage of a donation agreement with the Ministry of Social Affairs to provide free medical insurance to orphans as part of their CSR programs.

Bupa Arabia announces the official signage of their donation agreement with the Ministry of Social Affairs on the 11th of January 2012 / 17th Safar 1433 AH. The program aims to provide free medical insurance for all 3000 orphans living in orphanages registered under the ministry of social affairs. This agreement will automatically be renewed for another year between the parties unless any of the parties requested to cancel the agreement. Bupa Arabia has already enrolled nearly 400 orphans in the program in 2011. Bupa Arabias strategic plan is to cover all the 3000 orphans over the next few years as agreed with the ministry. The company?s social contribution plan and results will be shared with the shareholders during the next General Assembly meeting.
